I left brother Mc at Dundee, yesterday afternoon, where he will remain for a time, visiting the towns and villages in that district, as wisdom may direct, laying before the people the principles of the everlasting Gospel as I may find opportunity. We desire to make the most of the summer months in holding forth in the open air, where houses cannot be obtained. Although that street preaching is at a large discount in this city at present, for the reason that almost every principal corner and public spot is besieged with a class of teachers who cry, Lord, Lord, but do not the things which He has commanded. And these babbbers have multiplied (from what motive it is not for me to say) that it is difficult for a servant of the living God, sent unto them with the principles of life and salvation as contained in the Gospel of His dear Son to obtain a hearing. Nevertheless we are not discouraged, but expect to bravely battle on, trusting in the Lord who giveth the victory. Since my last writing to you, we have baptized some eighteen persons, besides a number of re-baptisms. With love to yourself, and all at 42, I remain your brother in the Gospel, Hamilton G. Park. SWITZERLAND. Berne, June 13, 1876. Pres. A. Carrington. I was pleased to learn from brother Home of your safe arrival, and of that of your...
