The Kempton-Wace Letters was a 1903 epistolary novel written jointly by Americans Jack London and Anna Strunsky, then based in San Francisco, California. It was published anonymously. The novel presents a discussion of the philosophy of love and sex, written in the form of a series of letters between two men, "Herbert Wace", a young scientist, and "Dane Kempton", an elderly poet. Writer Jack London wrote "Wace" letters, and Anna Strunsky wrote "Kempton" letters. In the late 19th century, the authors were part of a San Francisco radical literary group known as "The Crowd".

The ideal ebook i possibly study. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
