Can a boy on the brink of death save an unfamiliar world? Timothy yearns for adventure and it finds him through a creature from the alien world of Talyara. Joining forces with Talyarians, Tim travels to a land strange and diverse, with enticing lures and lurking evils. Returning home after an encounter with Windwalker, and now attending university, he tells the tale of his first adventure only to find himself confronted with another encounter that could mean great danger and even death for someone he cares about. Discover what lies ahead for Timothy and his friends in The Book of Talyara. .an adventure that will not only excite your imagination, but also challenge you to examine your relationship with God. The characters are people and creatures that children as well as adults will relate to in their weaknesses and aspire to be like in their courage. What a joy to finally have a fantasy that draws your heart toward victory and resurrection. . Dr. Michele Pickel, Ph.D. Concordia University Now, just when we thought that, after C.S. Lewis, the era of great science fiction/fantasy writing with a Christian dimension was over, comes David Paul's The Book of Talyara: the Chronicles of Windwalker. This book has it all a captivating adventure story with embedded insightful (NOT PREACHY) reflections on the meaning of Christian faith and life. It's a page-turner! . Rev. Earl H. Gaulke, Ph.D., D.D. Vice President Emeritus, Editorial Division Concordia Publishing House Watch for The Book of Talyara: The Chronicle of The Swords of Skylore.
