Excerpt from The Influence of the Bible on Civilisation Christianity was but starting on its way and fighting for its place in the world. The Bible could not exert a civilising influence upon a hostile world. But by impressing its value upon the Christian mind it made itself indispensable for the church and thereby laid the foundation for the future development. Christianity was a living religion. The first congregations were dwelling in an atmosphere of enthusiasm. There was a general outpouring of the Holy Spirit. The prophet s words seemed to be fulfilled: They shall teach no more every man his neighbour and every man his brother, saying: know the Lord; for they shall all know me. Christianity was not a religion of a sacred book, whose dead letter was to be artificially kept alive by learned men. It was a religion of living experiences. Nevertheless, Christianity from the beginning had a sacred book. Jesus and his disciples used the Bible of their people, the Old Testament, and Saint Paul carried it to the Christian communities of gentile origin, which had not known of it before. Christianity could not do without it. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
