I wondered which she prized most, and when I inquired, her eyes moistened and she said, This! and unpinned from her dress a medal which was to her as was the widow's mite, for it was all the giver possessed. The story is briefly told. An orphan boy one time sat outside the place where she was performing. He, ragged, barefooted, and dirty, attracted her attention and appealed to her sympathy. He asked her to see the show. She liked him; she provided for him and clothed him; she obtained employment for him. When that boy received the first money he ever earned, he took every cent of it and bought this medal and sent it to her with a suitable inscription. The boy is honest, industrious, and prosperous. Do you wonder she loves that gift better than any of...
