By Rae Murphy

Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 198 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .VERSION II Warren Zevon. We can relate to this strikingly unique man. We listen to his thoughts and feelings through his music. He spoke of love, heartbreak, loss, redemption and much more. The story begins with a flashback to the 70 s. A young woman strikes out on her own with her four year old son and makes her living tending bar at a local biker joint. Her resilient voice in this story clearly illustrates what struggling to survive means for a young mother on her own. Daily encounters with the Hell s Angels, including the leader Michael Angelo, would lead to unpredictable behavior and unexpected friendships. A fateful connection occurs when Warren Zevon steps into that same bar, one summer evening. By Maya Angelou: You can write me down in history with hateful, twisted lies, you can tread me in this very dirt, but still, like dust, I ll rise. Warren Zevon.
