O. Congressional Sales Office, 2001. OCLC Number: (OCO)49650510 Subject: Academic achievement -- Florida. Excerpt: . . . Time. We believe that we've got to knock down the barriers. If you come to Broward County, you will see us all wearing anti-barrier buttons. We ask five questions in my district: What are the barriers Who caused the barrier How does it impact children Why do they have the barrier And why do we need to remove it I believe that with the re-authorization of Title I, at the federal level, and with the leadership of Commissioner Crist and Governor Bush that we can begin to look at the barriers. But we've got to look at the barriers and make sure that we as federal government, as a state government, or as a local school district have not put barriers in the way of our teachers that keep them from teaching our kids. We've got to make sure that when we require them to go to staff development that it adds value to the classroom and not just a roll sheet. We've got to make sure the paperwork that is done is done in a way that helps students; that it doesn't just satisfy somebody sitting in an office in downtown Ft. Lauderdale, downtown Tallahassee, or Washington, D. C. So you can read my testimony and see the positive things we are doing. I think we are closing the gap, and we are a model for the country. But the reality is that we've got to do more to reform our system to get to...
