Rubbettino Editore, 2014. Book Condition: new. Soveria Mannelli, 2014; br., pp. 200, ill. col., cm 14,5x21,5. (Varia). In principio doveva trattarsi di una normale raccolta di ricette: poi, nel corso della stesura, è diventato molto di più, fino ad assumere le sembianze definitive di un libro completo e articolato che intreccia la storia delle radici di liquirizia con quella della famiglia dell'autore e della buona cucina. La prima parte, infatti, è un piccolo romanzo autobiografico, che, ruotando attorno alla liquirizia, traccia uno spaccato dolce e nostalgico di un'antica famiglia calabrese e della sua casa avita, durante certe estati semplici e già incredibilmente lontane degli anni Settanta-Ottanta. La seconda è un racconto agile e suggestivo, che narra la saga di un'impresa familiare plurisecolare oggi nota nel mondo e descrive cos'è la liquirizia, come e da quanto tempo si produce in Calabria, quali molteplici usi se ne possono fare, mettendo in evidenza come questa non sia solo una comune caramella, ma, prim'ancora, una naturale, gustosa e versatile radice. La terza è un ricettario classico, che propone sorprendenti ed allettanti soluzioni per impiegare la liquirizia in cucina in modo originale, facile e divertente. La quarta, infine, è una selezione di ricette di grandi chef affermati, piccoli cuochi talentuosi e tanti blogger creativi, che hanno come protagonista comune la liquirizia.
