Reviews

This type of publication is every thing and helped me seeking ahead and much more. It usually fails to charge too much. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

HarperCollins Publishers Inc, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Reprint. 224 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Bring a family of four to an NBA game today, and it costs around $500 to watch a bunch of seven-footers take bad shots. Perhaps the quote often attributed to P.T. Barnum is true there really is a sucker born every minute. The NBA is in trouble. And as NBA agent Keith Glass describes it he s part of the problem! If team owners are willing to throw millions of dollars his way for marginal players, why should he be the only one with the self-restraint to say no ? In his insightful, funny, and often mind-numbingly bizarre tales of life in the NBA over the last twenty- five years, Keith Glass lets it fly from half-court. He ll tell you how we got to the present state where an agent who makes millions off the game can t sit through one; why our NBA stars couldn t capture Olympic gold; and why the game he loves is in dire need of help. Glass has seen it all as the representative of players like Mark Eaton, the seven-foot-five center found working as a mechanic because he hated basketball; Mahmoud Abdul-Rauf, who converted to Islam and brought the wrath of the league upon him when he refused to stand for the National Anthem; and first-round draft pick Quincy Doubt, who was forced to enter the draft before graduating from Rutgers because of the harsh NCAA rules regarding college eligibility. With informative chapters such as How to Feed Your Family on Only $14 Million a Year, Eighty-one Feet of White Centers, and From 6 11 to the 7- Eleven, Glass shatters the myth of NBA marketing: that everything about the game is great, and that...
