In the 21st century, technology management has been implemented in various sectors to improve the efficiency of societies across the world. For example, traditionally, one has to go to a bank to make a banking transaction. However, today, one has the option to use an e-banking system that enables access to banking services around the clock, seven days a week. Social networking media, such as Facebook, have changed the way people interact across the world. The application of social networking applications to education has enabled the implementation of an effective learning platform across the global community. Distance learning programs have gone online, thus improving the quality and efficiency of world-class programs worldwide and bringing the best of the best of instructors to the global community. Although the concept of the virtual campus framework was introduced, its effective implementation must be ensured to assure its success as an instructional venue and to improve efficiency from the perspective of technology management. In this study, an e-campus framework was built that considers important aspects of the virtual campus framework....
