Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Supplementary Reports, American Indian Areas and Alaska Native Villages 1980: 1980 Census of Population This report presents 1980 census counts of the total and American Indian populations for identified American Indian areas which include reservations, tribal trust lands (off reservation), and the historic areas of Oklahoma (excluding urbanized areas). Counts are also shown for the total, American Indian, Eskimo, and Aleut populations in Alaska Native villages and in Alaska Native regional corporations. Summaries are provided for the United States, regions, divisions, and States. The report contains information on the number of occupied housing units (or households) with an American Indian householder or spouse; comparable data are presented for households in Alaska, with an American Indian, Eskimo, or Aleut householder or spouse. The types of identified American Indian areas and Alaska Native villages recognized in the 1980 census were based on recommendations of the Office of Management and Budget Task Force on Indian Census, consultations with American Indian tribal governments and organizations, and State governments. The 1980 census is the first decennial census to identify all Federal and State American Indian reservations and the other American Indian areas and Alaska Native villages shown in this report. (In the 1980 census, 278 reservations were identified; the 1970 census identified 115.) This is the first 1980 census report to present data on tribal trust lands, the historic areas of Oklahoma (excluding urbanized areas), and Alaska Native regional corporations. Information on American Indians, Eskimos, and Aleuts was derived from answers to the 1980 census race item. (See the facsimile of item 4 under Definitions and Explanations.) The concept of race as used by the Census Bureau reflects self-identification by...
