

Tribals of Orissa: the Changing Socio-Economic Profile

By B.C. Ray

2009. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. 174 Orissa is the home of 62 scheduled tribes. But comparatively very little research has been done on the socio-economic life of the tribals. This is a pioneering work to combine the studies and analyses by historians, anthropologists, psychologists, economists and literary critics on the changing society of the tribals. As a combined effort of many academicians the book gives a wide coverage on the study of Orissan tribals, to make it a worthwhile addition to the available material on the subject. About The Author:- Dr. B. C. Ray obtained his Masters degree from the Allahabad University and began as Lecturer in a Government College in Orissa. Later, he went to University of London and was awarded the Ph.D. degree. Later, he joined Utkal University and was Professor and Head, Department of History, Berhampur University before his retirement. He was also a Visiting Professor to Harvard University. He delivered lectures in Jagiellonian and Warsaw University of Poland. Among his important works are Orissa under the Mughals, Orissa under the Marathas, and Foundation of British Orissa. He has to his credit a large number of research papers published in several historical journals in India and abroad. Contents:-...
